Applicant's Statement of Justification

The Zoning Ordinance requires that, before any variance may be granted or modified, the granting authority must make the following findings. Explain below how your case qualifies under each.

Zoning Ordinance Section 7107

1. That there are exceptional or extraordinary circumstances or conditions applicable to the property involved or to the intended use of the property that do not apply generally to the property or class of use in the same vicinity and zone:

2. That granting the variance or its modification is neccessary for the preservation and enjoyment of a substantial property right possessed by other property in the same vicinity and zone, and denied to the property for which the variance is sought:

3. That granting the variance or its modification will not be materially deterimental to the public health, safety or welfare, or injurious to the vicinity and zone in which the property is located:

4. That granting the variance or its modification will not be incompatible with the San Diego County General Plan.
